REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior arts of record do not disclose a story branching control method for a video game recited in claim 11. Specifically, a branch destination of the story is determined in accordance with a predetermined variant value, the predetermined variant value is determined as a function of a prior success or failure in determining whether a previous branching point existed after receiving a previous search instruction input. Further, prior arts of record do not disclose a notification signal generating method for a video game set forth in claim 12. Specifically, the method comprises providing a branching point searchable by the player for determining a flow of the story; and generating a predetermined pass notification signal notifying the branching point to have been passed, when having passed the branching point by the flow of the story without having receiving a search instructing input of the player.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
